Objective:

The primary aim of this CME Programme was to educate our Final year , pre-final year students and CRRI about CPR along with hands on training by Mr.Neelakandan Shankar, lead first aid trainer and project officer, ALERT NGO.

Programme Details:

1. Welcome and Introduction

A brief introduction was given about cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and the basic physiology of chest compressions in a medical emergency.

2. The program included:

- The entire procedure of CPR – compression, airway & breathing
- The number of times to be repeated
- CPR for pregnant women and children
- Do's and Don'ts while performing a first aid in road accidents
- Handling of a seizure victim

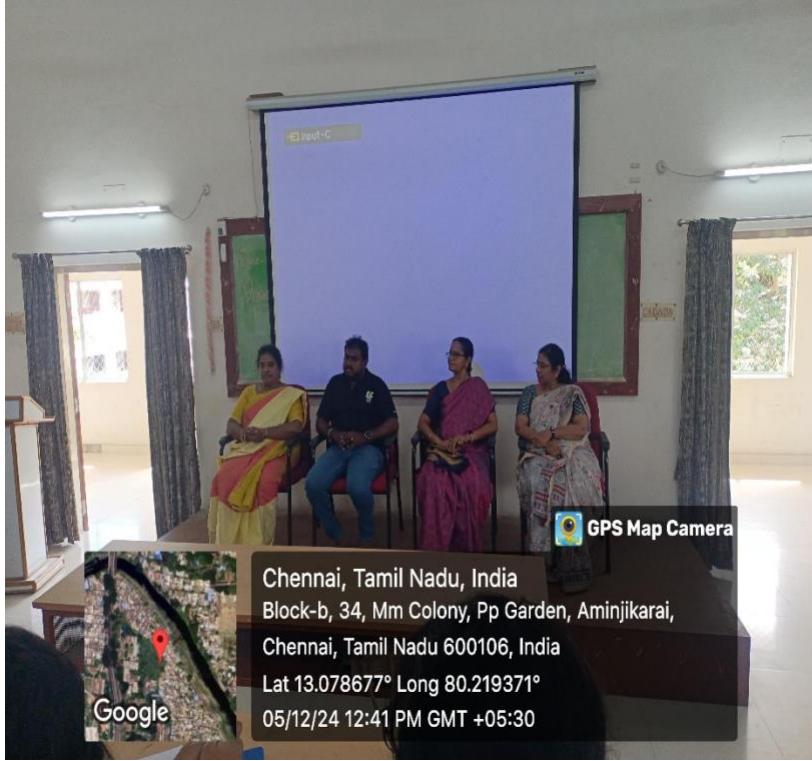

3. Activity:

- a. Demonstration of CPR by Mr.Neelakandan Shankar using a CPR mannequin .
- b. Hands on training to the students who performed CPR using mannequin guided by the trainer.

c. A lively Q&A session to address student's questions and encouraged discussion.
